

Photo Contest

#loveallages

We want to nurture connections across generations and raise awareness of the rights of older people. This is part of SE Health's 2023 Global Rally campaign as a member of the Global Alliance for the Rights of Older People.

We want to see the older adults and younger generations in your life captured in action while interacting at home, work, or in the community.

How to enter:

Submit your photo along with a (200-word min.) story on what made this moment special? What did you learn from different generations spending time together? Submissions must be in by March 21 at 11:59 PM. Winners will be selected by a judging panel.
